The Town of Winchester is setting the table for something truly special. From July 14 to July 21, Winchester will host its first-ever Restaurant Week, a delicious celebration of the town's burgeoning dining scene that invites locals and visitors alike to taste what all the buzz is about.

The official Winchester Restaurant Kick-off event will be hosted by Sogno on July 14 at 12 p.m. All are welcome to please RSVP to: admin@sognoitalian.com

Long known for its charm and community spirit, Winchester is now becoming a culinary destination in its own right. In the past few years alone, the town has welcomed a wave of exciting new eateries, each adding its own flavor to the local food culture.

Highlights include:

● A Tavola — A favorite with locals offering casual, rustic meals serving elegant Italian plates and wines by the carafe.

● First House Pub — A casual neighborhood tavern offering a traditional range of American comfort grub and drinks.

● Karma — A sleek and stylish spot offering upscale Asian fusion and sushi with an artistic flair.

● Krave — A conveniently located restaurant on the Woburn/Winchester line offering an eclectic menu that includes pizzas, pasta dishes, and poke bowls, plus sports on TV.

● Kyuramen — A Tokyo-style ramen house bringing authentic, soul-warming noodles to the heart of town.

Subscribe

● Ristorante Serena — A romantic, Italian fine dining experience with handmade pasta and elegant service.

● Sogno — An elegant gathering spot on the Winchester/Woburn line inspired by the culture, history, and warmth of Italian hospitality.

● Bagels and Brew — Casual cafe popular for breakfast and lunch, serving sandwiches and bagels alongside coffee and tea.

● Bagel Bar — A comfortable cafe serving locally baked New York style bagels, homemade spreads and a variety of delicious breakfast and lunch sandwiches to the area.

● Frozen Hoagies — An ice cream shop dishing up hand-scooped sandwiches, plus frappes, sundaes, and other treats.

● Gingerbread Construction Co — A charming spot just outside of Winchester center where every cookie, muffin, and biscotti is hand-baked to perfection.

● Nourish Your Soul — A health-conscious eatery serving acai, pitaya, and coconut bowls, plus smoothies in a casual setting.

● Nouvelle Maison — A French inspired cafe and specialty market bringing the joy of France to your home.

● Playa Bowls — Health-conscious eatery serving acai, pitaya, and coconut bowls, plus smoothies in a casual setting.

Winchester Restaurant Week will feature special prix-fixe menus, tasting events, and exclusive promotions at participating restaurants and small eateries. It’s the perfect time to explore new spots, revisit old fav celebrate the town’s evolving dining scene.
